A SMALL SCHOOL IN THE CATHOLIC TRADITION

ST. TIMOTHY SCHOOL

ST. TIMOTHY SCHOOL

- St. Timothy School opened its doors in 1963 to provide a quality Catholic education to this Northwest neighborhood.
- The school expansion and church renovation project was completed in 2001 and allowed for the addition of full-day kindergarten.
- Today our mission remains the same as we guide 245 students in grades K-8.

OUR STUDENTS' SUCCESSES

ST. TIMOTHY STUDENTS

- St. Timothy prides itself in preparing our students for academic success at every level of education:
- Twelve St. Timothy Alumni who attend St. Charles received recognition for their academic success this past quarter (attaining a 3.3 GPA or higher). (Eight received a 4.0 GPA and one is a current class valedictorian).
- Twenty-two St. Timothy Alumni who attend Bishop Watterson High School attained a 3.7 GPA or higher for this past quarter.
- Last year, two alumni (High School Seniors at Bishop Watterson and St. Charles) were nominated for National Merit Special Recognition.

ST. TIMOTHY STUDENTS

- Over the last five years, 87% of students graduating from St. Timothy elected to enroll in a Catholic High School.
